

Worried about Covid-19? Self isolating, but don't want to miss your training? We've got you protected!

All Executrain classes will now be streamed live, for free, via Skype for Business, so you don't need to leave your house!

For now, all facilitator-led training will go on as normal, so if you want a more personal experience, you are welcome to come to our campus as planned. We have put special hygiene measures in place and are committed to prevent the spread of the virus.
